Kittery in May the 6th 1712 We the Selectmen of Salisbury & Amesbury (and such as were appointed by ye Selectmen) met by appointment to run the line and renew the bounds and to erect bounds where there were none Betwixt ye Towns. Pursuant thereunto we went to look for the ancient mentioned bound at the mouth of Boundbrooks but the whitewood tree with stones by it we could not finde and sudg it may be washed away by the sea. Whereupon we mutually agreed and did set the aforesaid in stead thereof now (we judg) the same range as the former [illegible] run which said bound is attorne set into the ground with a wall all other stones laid about it on the top of the hill. Then East from ye place where we judg the former bound stood. And we then agreed and concluded: from ye bound stone to run west into the sea and east over the land to the main sea which range we carefully run: which range over Boundbrook neck or Island makes a point of land on the northern side of ye line in which range we marked seveall trees standing by and by ye line at the end or extremity of said Island near the sea we marked a witchwood on four sides and with E on the Eastern side and T on the northern side from thence we run east over the meadow to and held in the Elloes meadow which is the first Island in said meadow so through ye said land where we marked several trees standing and so on still east a winetree marked on four sides and with E on the Eastern side and T on the northern side from thence still east marking trees [illegible] we went to the Eastway where we marked trees in said [illegible] way on four sides and with letters as above said from thence we still east marking standing trees all along out (running to the northward of the [illegible] pond next ye brook and through a neck of plain which lies between ye Serving pond and another pond) till we came near the [illegible] where we marked a pine tree on four sides near the northwest corner of a [illegible] from thence over the northern [illegible] of ye [illegible] a little set in the ground some distance from the bank between the pond [illegible] the great pond or pennet pond [illegible] the place where the [illegible] pond [illegible] a white post is marked with E on the South and T on the [illegible] side and from thence East to ye Sea —

Whereas we the subscribers selectmen of Eastham have received instructi ons from ye Town of Eastham at a Town meeting in ye Eastham on the eighteenth day of June 1716: to go and view the land allowed by the late Committee for laying out lands in Eastham at the great neck between the land of Josiah Cooke and the land of John Mulford and if it should be judged needfull to bound out a way and lay it to be committed to record. Accordingly on the twentieth day of July 1716: we went to the place and finding it necessary that there should be a open way in that place for the benefit of ye Town or any particular persons, or occasion should require did therefore bound a way as followeth beginning at a stone set in the ground in or by the southerly side of ye way at the easterly end thereof which stone stands forty eight feet and an half distant northwesterly from ye white oak tree mentioned in the record of ye land which stands at the northeast corner of John Mulfords other land and then from ye stone it runs northerly thirty feet to another stone set in the ground near the range of the land of said Josiah Cooke being one of the bounds mentioned in the record of ye land by said Cooke and from thence said way is to run on a strait line westward by the land of said Cookes land thirty six pole to the remaining of a black oak set in the ground which is another bound mentioned in ye Cookes record of ye land and from said black oak it runs southerly thirty feet to a stone in the ground and from thence easterly on a strait line to the first mentioned stone said way being thirty feet wide and running on a strait line between said bounds until it comes out at the easterly end thereof and so to run the same breadth at ye easterly end until it comes out into the other way this way so bounded we the subscribers do lay out and appoint to be an open way for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Town of Eastham forever. Recorded p Jos Paine Town Clerk

Whereas there hath been complaint made to us the subscribers (being two of the Town of Eastham for the time being) that there was necessity for a drift-way to be laid out at Billings gate in Eastham from the house of Joseph Atkins to the landing place at Chequaset (so called) for the conveniency of persons passing along in ye station thereof. We accordingly we went to the place on the twenty fourth day of June anno domini 1714 and perceiving that there was indeed a necessity of a way to be laid out in that place we therefore proceeded and laid out a way as followeth (viz) begining at the going in of the rock by the house of Joseph Atkins at a chestnutwood tree at the end of a swamp which is a corner bound of the land of said Atkins from thence it runs northerly southwest pole to a pine tree marked and from thence to the landing place at Chequaset allowing the way to be fourty foot wide as the way now goes.

And whereas in laying out said way there was a necessity of taking away some of the land of Joseph Atkins we therefore with the said Joseph Atkins did mutually agree to lay him out other land in lieu thereof which we then did to his content and satisfaction and bounded it as followeth that is to say: it lies at Billingsgate on the southerly side of the way that goes from Duderick to William Coles and is bounded beginning at the southwest corner at a pine tree marked from thence it runs easterly twenty pole to another pine tree marked thence northerly twenty pole to a pine tree marked ~~and from thence~~ from thence westerly twenty four pole to a pine tree marked & marked from thence southerly twenty pole to the first specified bound.

The land which Joseph Atkins exchanges and grants to the Town in lieu thereof is bounded beginning at a chestnutwood tree at the end of the swamp by the house of Atkins runs southerly fourteen pole to a pine tree marked thence easterly to his barn thence easterly to the Cove of Medow Daniel Mayo thence to his fence to his barn thence northerly to the Cove by said medow to the land of Edward Atwood deceased and from thence northerly to the first specified bound.

Whereas there was a mistake in laying out one of the plain lot in the first division of land in Eastham it being laid partly in another lot formerly laid out wherefore to rectify the same and to make up a new was wanting to the lot there is now laid in addition to the lot the piece or parcel of land bounded as hereafter and lying near nose hill: viz: begin ning at the northeast corner of David Doanes house or a rock in his fence from thence running about southerly in the said David Doanes range twenty four pole to a stone in the ground thence northeasterly in the range of apiece of land which Thomas Doane bought of the town twenty four pole to a stone in the ground from thence northerly thirty four pole to a stone in the ground thence southwesterly thirty two pole to a stone in the ground and from thence southerly twenty four pole to the first specified bound. always allowing a convenient way by and over the lands for the benefit of those that improve the land within the said Nose hill. being about seven acres more or less. at a proprietors meet ting on the 12th day of april: 1721 the above written addition to the said lot laid out to mr Samuel Treat was publickly read and voted to be recorded and is accordingly recorded per John Mains proprietors clerk

Whereas a lot of meadow lying at little Billingsgate in Eastham was laid out to William Cole in the division of the meadows in the said Eastham in the year of our Lord 1703. and by the said William Cole legally conveyed to divers times to become the proper right and effects of John Freeman late of Eastham deceased. but for as much as John Atwood of the said Eastham did in the year of our Lord 1720 bring an action of trespass against Benjamin Freeman the reputed son of the said John Freeman for mowing and carrying of hay from the lot aforesaid in meadow for part of a lot of meadow which the said John Atwood purchased of Capt Jonathan Sparrow. and the said wood did recover judgment against the said Freeman at the inferior court of common pleas holden at Barnstable in october 1720 the said Benjamin Freeman did therefore make application to the Town and proprietors of the said Eastham at a Town and proprietors meeting in the said Eastham on the twenty fourth day of march anno domini 1720/21 who did then and there make choice of mr John Sparrow and mr Jonathan Linnell as a committee in behalf of the town and proprietors to lay out to the proper heirs of the said John Freeman so much meadow in some convenient place of the undivided meadows in Eastham as may make recompence or satis faction to the said heirs of the said Freeman ~~a recompence~~ ~~a compensation~~ for the meadow recovered from them by the said Atwood and also for the charges which the said Ben jamin Freeman hath been put in defending the title thereof and to make return to the clerk of the town and proprietors their situation and com pass of the meadow they do lay out who then did agree to commit the same to record. accordingly on the ninth day of ~~apr~~ May anno domini 1721 the said John Sparrow and Jonathan Linnell entered in to the said division an account of two parcels of meadow laid out by them in the above said lot lying on the southerly side of the driving river at little Billingsgate in the said Eastham. and parcel thereof contained as and an half lies on the northerly side of a parcel of meadow which was originally laid to Thomas Cole and is now in the possession of Benjamin Freeman

ffreeman and is Bounded: viz: Easterly by the western bounds of the ffreemans Meadow and from the ffreemans bounds of sd meadow westerly the length thereof of ye rodes from the upland to the river below until it ended in one place and on half the other part or parcell of sd meadow lies also on the southern side of the Herring river and is the Easterly end of sd meadow of Ebenezer ffreeman and is bounded westerly by the eastern bounds of sd ffreemans Meadow be ginning at the northeast corner bound of sd ffreemans meadow from thence it runs Easterly by the herring river until it comes to a place where sd Herring river comes near the upland within about five poles and a large shore is a dead whitebark tree marked standing on the upland from thence it runs westerly by the upland to a pine tree marked sd being the southeast corner bound of sd Ebenezer ffreemans meadow and from thence westerly by the range of sd ffreemans meadow to the first bound mentioned. The one half of sd two parcells of meadow is laid out to the sd Samuell in ye proper heirs of sd Deceased John Sweat in the other half of sd meadow to John Sweat above named to satisfy him for the charges which he has been at in defending the title of the same sd meadow to have and to hold the sd two parcells of meadow to them respectively as aforesd and to their heirs and assigns forever —
